

PRESS RELEASE:
15 August 2011

Anne Brodie's BEE BOX

Opening 1st September 2011 - 6pm
General 1st September 2011 - 1st November 2011

Address Bishop's Square, Spitalfields, London
Brushfield Street, London, E1 6AA

The first public art exhibition held simultaneously across eight countries in Europe focuses on relations between art, science and society. As the UK representative, award-winning artist, Anne Brodie, will present her artwork, BEE BOX, for the first time.

The BEE BOX reminds us of the invisible disappearance of our pollinators. Bees, like us, form communities of workers capable of generating intelligent social interactions. Brodie offers a poetic reflection on the fragility of these communities.

Curators Howard Boland & Laura Cinti of C-LAB
